Title

Flooded Venice by night

Creation date

20130122

Caption

February 1, 2014 - Venice, Italy: Local residents and tourists sit in the flooded St Mark's square during a night of acqua-alta or high-water, alert. The flooding is caused by wind and rain combined with the periodic tidal phenomenon of the city's lagoon. (Manuel Silvestri/Polaris) (FOTO:DUKAS/POLARIS)
