

First battles of the American Revolution reenactment

Reference
DUKAS_183775457_POL
Title
First battles of the American Revolution reenactment
Creation date
20250419
Caption
April 19, 2025 Lincoln, Massachusetts, United States. Re-enactors portraying colonial militia and British soldiers take part in re-enactment on "Battle Road" at Minute Man National Park in Lincoln, MA. at the 250th anniversary of the beginning of the American Revolution. Over 700 re-enactors took part in the re-enactment. British reenactors joined by the Acton Minutemen and other local companies at the Old North Bridge and reenacted the North Bridge battle which included musket volleys. (Rick Friedman / Polaris) (FOTO:DUKAS/POLARIS)
Special instructions
(c) Dukas
City
Lincoln
Credit
DUKAS
Source
POLARIS
Author
/ Polaris, 08027322
Original references
Polaris, 08027322