"I don't know whether to laugh or cry," said homeowner Osirus Willis, who finds her truck driver jacket across the street from her heavily damaged home on Sunday, May 25, 2025, along Ashland in the Greater Ville neighborhood of St. Louis. As she copes with the May 16 tornado damage, Willis is trying to resolve an insurance issue that has her listed as a renter rather than a homeowner. (POST DISPATCH/POLARIS) (FOTO:DUKAS/POLARIS)
