Rachel Zegler, 24, stars as Eva Perón in Jamie Lloyd's new production of "Evita" at the London Palladium, London, UK.
19th June 2025

Rachel Zegler performs the musical's hit "Don't Cry For Me Argentina," from a balcony overlooking the street outside the venue.

She is playing former first lady of Argentina in the show, which debuted in 1978 and was written by Tim Rice and musical legend Andrew Lloyd Webber.

The decision has sparked controversy among some West End fans who have spent up to £500 on tickets to the show only to not get to see its most famous song performed in person.
