Participants of the 3rd Black March of Wolyn 1943 walk through the city streets on the 82nd anniversary of 'Bloody Sunday' on July 11, 2025, in Krakow, Poland. The III Black March marches through the streets of Krakow, commemorating the 82nd anniversary of the Wolyn massacre, in which about 80,000 Poles die in 1943. First, a holy mass is celebrated in the intention of the victims, and then the participants of the march go to the monument to the Victims of Ukrainian Genocide at the Rakowicki cemetery.
