Caption
In Barcelona, Spain, on October 2, 2025, demonstrators gather in Placa de la Carbonera, near the port of Barcelona, following the Israeli navy's interception of the Global Sumud flotilla bound for Gaza. Protesters demand the release of detained activists, including public figures, and call for international action. The rally, part of a series of solidarity demonstrations across Spain, includes speeches, banners, and chants, with some groups announcing plans for a permanent camp in the square.
