Bakers are making traditional Turkish bagel 'simit'

Bagel making, Istanbul, Turkey - 14 Feb 2018

Turkish bagel 'simit' is a popular food and snack in Turkey. The simit is perhaps Turkey's quintessential street food, and it has been so for over 500 years. It is sold in many spots throughout Turkey's major cities and in bakeries in smaller towns. Turks of all ages eat it at breakfast, on a ferry boat ride accompanied by a glass of tea, as an afternoon snack, and whenever else hunger sets in
