

NEWS - Abholzung und Wildtierwelt auf Borneo

Reference

DUK10122318_019

Title

NEWS - Abholzung und Wildtierwelt auf Borneo

Creation date

20190820

Caption

Bornean elephants are pictured near the Kinabatangan River, on August 5, 2019 near Sandakan city, State of Sabah, North of Borneo Island, Malaysia. Palm oil plantations are cutting down primary and secondary forests vital as habitat for wildlife including the critically endangered Bornean elephants. Photo by Emy/ABACAPRESS.COM (FOTO: DUKAS/ABACA)

Special instructions

(c) Dukas

City

Sandakan

Credit

DUKAS

Source

ABACA

Author

/ 696131_056

Original references

696131_056