[There was no sign of the proverbial sore head as this bear raised a huge paw in a seemingly good-natured response to the tourist who waved to him from a car while driving through the Olympic Game Farm in Washington state, USA.

Luckily the scene was caught on camera and the seven-second video has become an internet sensation, attracting almost 50,000 hits on the YouTube website.

One fan suggested the bear's show of good manners was simply a crafty way of winning visitors over to get closer to their picnic baskets.] (FOTO: DUKAS/ACTIONPRESS)
