[15 month old baby Brayden, with parents Clair and Kenneth Walker, during the feeding process that made staff in Costa Coffee in Aberdeen ask them to leave because they said it was off-putting to other customers. Coffee giant Costa has apologised to a mother who was thrown out for feeding her disabled son. Clair Walker was asked to leave after a customer complained she was put off her latte by 15-month-old Brayden being fed through a tube. Mrs Walker, 29, and her husband, Kenneth, 44, said they were told not to return to the Aberdeen shop after the incident on September 4.] (FOTO: DUKAS/ACTIONPRESS)
