William and Kate Spoof Baby Preparations

With the birth of the royal baby imminent it would appear that Prince William and the Duchess of Cambridge are keen to fit in some last minute preparations - and pampering!

The royal parents to be are seen preparing for the arrival of their little bundle of joy by setting up a cot, stockpiling nappies and, in William's case, getting in some 'breast' feeding practice!

Meanwhile, Catherine ensures her yummy mummy status by working out with sister Pippa before enjoying a few well deserved beauty treatments.

However, take a closer look and the secret behind the photos are revealed - they're all shot using lookalikes.

The pictures are the work of artist Alison Jackson, who is renowned for her elaborate and often believable 'spoof' productions, which give an imaginary behind-the-scenes insight into the world of celebrities and Royals
