February 12, 2014 - Sochi, Krasnodar Krai, Russia: Mobile phone network antennas disguised as an artificial palm tree in Olympic Park. The 2014 Winter Olympic Games will be the most expensive in the history of the Olympics - $50 billion and rising. For comparison, London 2012 cost $13.98 billion, Vancouver 2010 cost 8.33, and Nagano 1998 cost 17.59. The U.S. Olympic team and at least five other national delegations (Germany, Hungary, Italy, Slovakia and Slovenia) have received messages making terrorist threats ahead of the Winter Games, adding to mounting security fears as competition has begun. The games formally began Feb. 7. (Ryan Koopmans/ Polaris) (FOTO:DUKAS/POLARIS)
