NASA's Boeing Crew Flight Test astronauts Butch Wilmore and Suni Williams say goodbye to friends and family upon exiting the Neil A. Armstrong Operations and Checkout Building at NASA's Kennedy Space Center in Florida on Wednesday, June 5, 2024. The crew members are on their way to load up into Boeing's Astrovan for the trip to the launch pad of Space Launch Complex-41 at nearby Cape Canaveral Space Force Station, where they will launch to the International Space Station aboard Boeing's Starliner spacecraft atop a United Launch Alliance Atlas V rocket at 10:52 a.m. EDT.
