She posted footage of herself with baskets of roses and oranges apparently picked from the ground of the mansion in Montecito, California. The Duchess of Sussex , 43, captioned the footage: "End of day harvest". A male voice, possibly Harry, 40, is heard laughing off camera. She is also seen setting the baskets down showing the couple's her black Labrador, Pula, who was playing in the background. Another clip showed Meghan's beagle, Mamma Mia, sniffing around the oranges and a basket of strawberries. She captioned it: "A beautiful end to the day.: The clips were posted on Megan's Instagram stories to her 2.8million followers.
