

Naengmyeon(Buckwheat Cool Noodles)

| |
|--|
| Reference |
| DUKAS_186761271_NUR |
| Title |
| Naengmyeon(Buckwheat Cool Noodles) |
| Creation date |
| 20240620 |
| Caption |
| Various styles of Naengmyeon (buckwheat cool noodles) are arranged on a marble table in Sangju, South Korea, on July 8, 2025. Naengmyeon, or buckwheat cool noodles, is a noodle dish of North Korean origin that consists of long and thin handmade noodles made from the flour and starch of various ingredients, most commonly buckwheat, but also potatoes, sweet potatoes, arrowroot starch, and kudzu. Other varieties of naengmyeon are made from ingredients such as seaweed and green tea. (Photo by Seung-il Ryu/NurPhoto) |
| Special instructions |
| (c) Dukas |
| City |
| Sangju |
| Credit |
| DUKAS |
| Source |
| NURPHOTO |
| Author |
| Seung-il Ryu |
| Original references |
| |