

Tourism Slowly Revives In Kashmir After Deadly Attack

Reference
DUKAS_186870670_NUR
Title
Tourism Slowly Revives In Kashmir After Deadly Attack
Creation date
20250711
Caption
Indian tourists take Shikara rides on the waters of Dal Lake in Srinagar, Jammu and Kashmir, on July 11, 2025. Nearly three months after a deadly attack on April 22 that kills 26 tourists in Baisaran Pahalgam, Kashmir, an incident that scares away tourists and brings India and Pakistan to the brink of war, the valley nestled in the Himalayan mountains begins to show signs of a tourism revival. (Photo by Firdous Nazir/NurPhoto)
Special instructions
(c) Dukas
City
SRINAGAR, Jammu And Kashmir
Credit
DUKAS
Source
NURPHOTO
Author
Firdous Nazir
Original references