EXCLUSIVE: August 28th, 2025 - Ra'anana, Israel: Sheerel Gabay, 25, attended the Nova music festival. When she escaped into a shelter in Beeri along with other 40 party participants she was shot in her leg and abdomen. Sheerel who was in the back part of the shelter that was bombed, laid under a body of a woman and played dead for eight hours until she was rescued by the father of another young woman hiding there. The father broke through a police barrier in a pick-up truck and loaded them on the back before the search and rescue teams arrived. Of the 40 people who had hidden in the shelter, only a dozen survived, including Gabay and her friends. Sheerel had to go through surgeries and a long rehabilitation process. Here she is at her mother's home. (Ziv Koren/ Polaris) (FOTO:DUKAS/POLARIS)
