A protester holds a placard reading "save Gaza, stop Israel" during the 'Stop the Genocide' rally in support of Gaza, at Place de la Republique, in Paris, France, on September 17, 2025. Israel's army says on September 17, 2025, it opens a temporary new route to allow people to flee Gaza City, a day after launching a major ground assault aimed at crushing Hamas. The Israeli military unleashes a massive bombardment of Gaza City before dawn on September 15, 2025, and pushes its troops deeper into the Gaza Strip's largest urban hub. It comes as a United Nations probe accuses Israel of committing "genocide" in the Palestinian territory, saying Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu and other senior officials incite the crime.
