A general strike in support of the Global Sumud Flotilla and the Palestinian people takes place in Turin, Italy, on October 1, 2025. Thousands of people participate in a demonstration supporting the Palestinian people and the Global Sumud Flotilla, shouting "let's block everything." Many protesters also try to go to the event "Italia Tech Week" at OGR, where Jeff Bezos, Ursula Von Der Leyen, and John Elkann are scheduled to participate. Later, the demonstration moves to the Leonardo premises to block the activities. Riot police use a lot of tear gas to disperse the crowd. (Photo by Elisa Marchina/NurPhoto)
