Caption
June 26, 2016 - New York, NY, United States - Scouts for Equality march in the parade carrying 49 orange flags in memory of the victims of the Pulse nightclub shooting. Millions of spectators lined the streets of Manhattan to view over 400 entries participating in the 46th Annual Heritage of Pride March in New York City. This year's celebration paid special tribute to the victims of the Orlando Pulse nightclub shooting that left 49 dead and celebrated the recent announcement by President Obama that The Stonewall Inn in the city's West Village is to be named a National Historic site (FOTO: DUKAS/ZUMA)
