Caption

The drug Mephedrone also known as 4-MMC that is legal in the UK and readily available on the Internet for around £15 a gram, enough for five doses. It has already been made illegal in Sweden, Denmark, Finland and Israel. It is rapidly sweeping across the UK drug scene as the substance of choice. Its effect is reported to be very similar to ecstasy and cocaine. A number of organizations including drug charities have called for it to be banned.
