Caption

A 2,000km road and river odyssey in Brazil reveals consensus from all sides: Bolsonaro has ushered in a new age of wrecking. Humaitá, Amazonas, Brazil, September 2, 2019:
In the riverside town of Humaitá in Amazonas state, Ibama's former headquarters lies in ruins having been stormed, ransacked and burned to the ground by illegal goldminers during a 2017 attack in retribution for a crackdown on their operations.
