Reading stabbings: Three dead after multiple people knifed in town's historic Forbury Gardens park. Three people have been stabbed to death in a knife attack in a park in Reading. Witnesses said a man went running into Forbury Gardens at about 7pm on Saturday and began stabbing people before trying to flee. Three people were killed in the attack, while three were seriously injured and were rushed to hospital. Thames Valley Police said a 25-year-old man was arrested at the scene and is in custody. The force added that the incident is not being treated as terror-related. The scene in Forbury Park today.
